Thomas B. Hayes, Jr. Technology Innovator Award In Recognition Of Technology Innovation & Sharing

Thomas B. Hayes, Jr

Thomas B. Hayes, Jr. Award: Technology and Innovation

The primary criteria for the award recipient is a person who has shared innovative and advantageous technology applications relevant to commercial real estate brokerage with you or your firm during the current year or in the past.

The award was established in 2003 to honor the late Tom Hayes, who, as a Principal of Integrated Corporate Property Services/CORFAC Intl., was consistently on the pioneering and cutting edge of monitoring and assessing new technology and keeping his CORFAC colleagues up-dated on them.

Thomas B. Hayes, Jr. Award

- 2005: Ray Baker CPS/CORFAC Intl.
- 2006: Jerry Holdner Voit Commercial/CORFAC Intl.
- 2007: Pablo Revilla CPS/CORFAC Intl.

Olen Monsees Award

The Olen Monsees Award recognizes the CORFAC individual as the 'Unsung Hero' for the CORFAC member who goes above and beyond without being asked and with little recognition.

The award was created in memory and honor of Olen Monsees (1940-2012), president of Karbank Real Estate Company and colleague since 1969. Olen was an iconic figure in the Kansas City real estate brokerage community. He distinguished himself with his plain spoken wisdom, his quiet dignity and his low-keyed manner that engendered deep loyalty among his clients, friends and colleagues. His focus was always to get the job done properly. He worked with a natural sense of responsibility, without complaint, without excuses. Olen was the finest of gentlemen.
