

2017 Spring Conference Frequently Asked Questions

What are the transportation options to/from San Diego International Airport to the Kimpton Solamar Hotel?

The Kimpton Solamar Hotel is located just a few short miles from the San Diego International Airport. Transportation options for travel to/from airport include:

- Taxi – Approximately $20
- Uber – Approximately $11-$19

What about transportation during the summit?

The Kimpton Solamar Hotel is conveniently located within walking distance of many restaurants and bars. For guest tours and the off-site event at the Air and Space Museum, transportation will be provided by CORFAC.

What's included in my conference registration?

All Broker, Next Gen, and Broker Support Registrations include: speaker/session materials; access to meeting facilities/resources; 3 breakfasts, 2 lunches and 3 receptions; and the Awards Dinner on Friday night.

What about guest registrations?

All guest registrations include 3 breakfasts, 3 receptions, and the Awards Dinner on Friday night. If your guest does not register for the full conference guest package and wants to participate in some activities, email diann@corfac.com for ticket information. A fee will be charged for any non-registered persons without name badges attending any function.

Are the committee meetings open to any attendee?

Yes. The only two committee meetings not open to general attendees is the Executive Committee meeting on Thursday and the Past Presidents Committee meeting on Friday. Besides these two, attendees are encouraged to attend any and all committee meetings, as well as the Saturday Board Meeting, to get a feel for what CORFAC is working on both now and for the future.

What is Rendezvous every night at 10pm?

Rendezvous is the time set aside every night for drinks, informal networking, and getting to know your fellow CORFAC members better. Locations will be included in the conference app (available for download two weeks prior to the start of the conference).

What is the conference dress code?

The dress code for the CORFAC conference is business attire. The one exception is the Awards Dinner which is coat and tie. All off-site special events and tours are casual attire.

Anything else I need to know?

The conference app (available for download two weeks prior to the start of the conference) will be updated in real-time if any schedule or room changes occur. A daily e-mail will also be sent to all conference attendees with a lineup of the day's events, including any changes to the schedule. The registration desk will be open on Wednesday afternoon and all day Thursday if you have any questions once you arrive on-site.
